

"Flu" to Come Back, But in Mild Form, Predicts Dr. Blue

Surgeon General Tells Public
There Is No Reason for Alarm: Careful Sanitation
Is Best Preventive

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—"Will the 'flu' come back this year?" This question being asked by thousands of scientists and millions of laymen throughout the world, is discussed by Surgeon General Blue, of the Public Health Service, in an official bulletin in which it is said the plague probably will reappear, but not in as severe a form as last winter.

"Probably, but by no means certainly, there will be a recurrence of the influenza epidemic this year," says General Blue.

"Indications are, that should it occur, it will not be as severe as the pandemic of the previous year. City of-

Officials, state and city boards of health, should be prepared in the event of a recurrence. The fact that a previous attack brings immunity in a certain percentage of cases should allay fear on the part of those afflicted in the previous epidemic.

Disease Spread by Contact

"Influenza is spread by direct and indirect contact. It is not yet certain that the germ has been isolated, or discovered, and as a consequence there is yet no positive preventive, except the enforcement of rigid rules of sanitation and the avoidance of personal contact. A close relation between the influenza pandemic and the constantly increasing mortality rate prior to the fall of 1918, is recognized. It is now believed that the disease was pretty widely disseminated throughout the country before it was recognized in its epidemic state. This failure to recognize the early cases appears to have largely been due to the fact that every interest was then centered on the war.

Some Immunity Predicted

"Concerning the important question of immunity conferred by an attack of influenza, the evidence is not conclusive, but there is reason to believe that an attack during the earlier stages of the epidemic confers a considerable, but not absolute immunity in the later outbreaks.

"Evidence collected during last winter's pandemic points strongly to infected eating and drinking utensils, especially in places where food and drink are sold to the public, as being one of the modes of transmission of this disease."

"Plumb Plan" Starts School Board Fight

Briarcliff Factions Appeal to Court to Decide Which Teacher Should Stay

WHITE PLAINS, Sept. 13.—A Plumb plan of school management, imported with its originator, George Plumb, from Stamford, Conn., had caused a serious rupture in the second school district of Briarcliff. The intervention of the Supreme Court of Chester County has been sought, Justice Platt now has a petition for an injunction under consideration. Two factions are contesting over management of the high school. One faction heard that George Plumb, of Stamford, had an excellent plan of school management and hired him as principal to put it into effect at Briarcliff. The other faction, supporting Horatio Baum, the principal who has been superceded, called a special meeting of the school district at which the Plumb school plan was denounced. An election was held, and four men, friendly to principal Baum were elected. The new school board renewed a contract with Baum. The Plumb partisans appealed to the State Board of Education, which considered the case last week, while the friends of Mr. Baum sought an injunction to restrain Mr. Plumb from acting as principal pending trial of an action to nullify his contract.

Episcopalians to Chose New Bishop Wednesday

Successor to Dr. Greer Will Be Elected by Lay and Clerical
Delegates of Diocese

The special Episcopal diocesan convention to select a successor to Bishop Greer will meet at 10 A. M. Wednesday at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. There will be a solemn service of holy communion, and then Suffragan Bishop Birch will call the convention to order.

It is estimated that not more than 340 clerical votes will be cast. Each of the 157 churches of the diocese will send three lay delegates. One each is allowed the thirty-five organized missions, but these are entitled to but half a vote. For historic reasons, however, Trinity has been allotted eight lay votes, one each for its eight chapels. Lay and clerical delegates will vote separately, but a concurrent majority is necessary for election of the bishop. When the result has been announced by the presiding officer the members of the convention will sign the testimonial to the bishop elect, certifying his fitness. This testimonial will be laid before the general convention, which will meet at Detroit, October 8, and the election will be then confirmed by the House of Bishops and the House of Clerical and Lay Delegates.

Charges Three With Assault Auto Man, Accused of Abducting Girl, Says He Was Beaten

Stephen Downey, a detective on the staff of Inspector McElroy; his brother Peter, a salesman, of 1504 Union Street, and Bernard Seidel, another detective, will be examined in the Gates Avenue Court, Brooklyn, Tuesday on charges of felonious assault. The charges were made by Joseph Schaffer, an automobile dealer, of 705 Prospect Place, Brooklyn, who is facing a hearing the same day on a charge of having abducted Margaret, seventeen, a sister of the Downey brothers.

Schaffer says Peter Downey and the two detectives forced him to accompany them in an automobile to 269 Quincey Street, where the girl had been found. When he refused to enter the place, he alleges, he was beaten.

THE CODE OF OUR CRAFT-TAILORS IS PRECISION OF FIT AND FINESSE

THEIR CREED, DISTINGUISHED FASHION THEMES IN

TAILLEUR and COSTUME SUITS

FOR THE WELL GROOMED WOMAN AND THE "JEUNE FILLE"

Individualism in fashions has ever been the traditional and institutional policy of this shop. The mode personalized, the mode translated into terms that are complementary to the individual, is the practice held by this shop. A slavish bending and adherence to a transitory style-whim embarrasses with its obtrusiveness. Restraint and moderation govern the true Art in Dress.

Bonwit Teller & Co. present many original and unusual versions of the mode, sufficiently diverse to harmonize with the contour and the personality of the individual. Featured are straight line silhouettes, the "pinched-waist" and Godet flare in exquisite fabrics such as silk duvetyne and other soft-surface textiles. Some models delineate the strictly tailored types, others have a dominating richness of fashionable furs.

VERITIES AND SYMBOLS OF FASHION—ARTISTIC ENTITIES

IN COLOR AND LINE ARE EXPRESSED IN

FORMAL and INFORMAL GOWNS

To make a frock or gown an artistic entity—to blend colors and establish lines—to treat with ornamentation and embellishment so that the gown or frock expresses a harmonious whole, requires talent of an intellectual order. It requires clarity of vision, a knowledge of tonal values and proportion of lines.

The special fascination which attaches to Bonwit Teller & Co. gown fashions is the running theme, the major note of simplicity, carried to fulfilled expression from the trotteur to the most formal of evening gowns. There are little graces and elegancies of detail that will appeal sincerely to those cultured in style-sense.
